“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. It may be comforting to know that God cares for each and every one of us. The Bible gives us hope that we can see our loved ones again on earth. John 5:28,29

“ Rest in Peace Trina. You now have eternal peace. Continue to shine your light on those of us that are left here to endure. Your kind spirit touched many of us and will never be forgotten. To the family that will be reading this (Tony, Dion, Teesha, Saprina, Tasha, Ant Cherity and the rest), I pray that God gives you the strength that you need to get through this trying time. I will continue to keep you guys lifted in prayer.

“ I havent seen or talked to Katrina in years. Since I left the DC area, a lot of my memories of people that I knew have faded. But when I heard Katrina had passed all I could see was her face and her bright smile.

To her family, I wish for you nothing but divine peace during such a difficult time. Losing a loved one so young is so hard and my/our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Sincerely Karen Bailey Allen Dea. James and Francina Bailey and the entire Bailey and McPherson Family
