Kenneth “Kenny” Lonnell Brown, Jr. was born on December 20, 1965 in Washington, DC to Easter France Brown and the late Kenneth Lonnell Brown, Sr. Kenny was educated in the District of Columbia Public Schools. In high school he played football and graduated from Phelps Education Center in 1983. After graduating high school, Kenny was employed with the United States Department of Labor where he worked a few years until he landed a job at the DC Housing Authority (DCHA) working as a Utility Systems Engineer. Kenny was employed with DCHA for over 30 years. In 2016, Kenny married his longtime girlfriend Lisa and they made their home in Capitol Heights, Maryland where he resided until his untimely death. Kenny was a family man and a very generous person with a huge heart. He would literally give anyone the shirt off his back. Kenny loved to eat; he especially loved his mother’s cooking. To be specific, Kenny bragged about her banana pudding. He enjoyed traveling; Kenny visited his family in North Carolina every year for the annual family reunion. His love of travel took him to places like Brazil, Jamaica and Cancun, just to name a few.

Not only did Kenny love to travel, but his favorite hobbies included watching football and basketball games at home with family and friends. His favorite sports teams were: ▼e Washington Football Team, San Francisco 49ers, ▼e Washington Wizards and ▼e Los Angeles Lakers. Kenny also enjoyed playing board, card games and pool; he believed he could beat anyone in billiard pool. Kenny was a very spontaneous person, who lived by his own rules and he had the “gi↔ of gab”. Kenny le↔ a lasting impression on everyone he met.

He leaves to cherish his memory is; wife, Lisa Brown; daughter Kendra Ambrose; two step-daughters; Shikeema and Rasheeda Kennedy; mother Easter Brown; four sisters Gloria Battle, Tanya Jackson (Ralph) Francine and Kaya Brown; one brother Damion Brown; ▲ve nephews Allen and Aaron Morton, Roy Battle III, Rashaad Jackson and Marquis Brown; one niece Krystal Battle; two step-grandchildren; one great-nephew; one great-niece; and a host of relatives and friends. Kenny was preceded in death by his father (Kenneth L. Brown, Sr.), son Delonte F. Bridgers Brown and nephew Damion Body

“ *My Hero
You held my hand
When I was small
You caught me when I fell
You're the hero of my childhood
And my later years as well
And every time I think of you
My heart still fills with pride
Though I will always miss you Dad
I know you're by my side
In laughter and in sorrow
In sunshine and through rain
I know you're watching over me
Until we meet again*

*No matter where I am, your spirit will be beside me.
Your Daughter Kendra*

My heartfelt condolences goes to his family and especially my cousin Kendra his daughter. Kenny & I were co-workers and for many years when his office would have a pot luck celebration he would always bring that good ole banana pudding. I will miss his generosity and I know to be absent from the body is to be present with the lord.

Continue to rest peacefully Kenny.
