“Christine, I was shocked and saddened to hear of the loss of your husband. I know there are no words that take away the pain and hurt you are feeling. Just know that I am praying for you and the kids and with time it will get better. May God cover and protect you during this difficult time.

“I have heard time heals all wounds; I pray the pain of this loss will soon lessen. The days draw heavy emotions for everyone but the love Kenny shared with us all I pray will guide us through a healing process. We miss him so, that will never change; but the joy we hold through the memories I pray will help keep this family in God's hands.

John 14:27-29 "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place you may believe. "

Love you all Sharyl, Adrian and Walter Williams

“ Tina and the kids, We were shocked to no end to hear of Kenny's death. I always thought of him as being realtivley quiet and laid back, which I personally respected and liked. We hope that all goes well now and in the future. From our family to yours, we wish you the best in the days to come. Sorry we cannot be with you during this difficult time, but will see you at the family reunion. Our prayers are with you all, love Uncle Jimmy & Chrissie Daniel
