Remembering Kerron

Kerron Bilton Purchess was born on April 30, 1982 in Montego Bay, Jamaica.

In 1985 at the age of three, he migrated to the United States to live with his beloved mother.

Kerron, also known as

"Romeo" to his immediate family, attended Bancroft Elementary School,

Lincoln Middle School, and Woodrow Wilson High School. He then later attended Lincoln Tech for

Automotive Service

Management. He was very intelligent and well-known for his IT computer talents. Kerron

welcomed his first-born, Hugo Purchess, on September 20, 2012. Kerron moved to Tennessee and welcomed his second born, Felix Purchess, on August 6, 2015. Kerron was adored and loved by many. He was told his smile alone can start a conversation. Though many people looked up to Kerron as a mentor, his greatest source of pride and happiness was being the best father he could be to his sons. Although stern, he was dedicated. He provided structure and a loving environment.

On November 23, 2023, we lost a beloved father, a caring son, a brave and generous brother, a favored cousin, a cherished nephew, a jovial uncle, and a dependable friend and mentor. Our hearts are still filled with the light that Kerron brought into the world. Every day, we will carry his light as we continue to care for his mother, to be strong for his sisters and brothers, and to teach his boys that even though he is not physically among us, his soul remains within all of us.

Kerron will truly be missed, but forever cherished by his sons, Hugo Purchess and Felix Purchess; his parents, Pauline Whyte and Delroy Purchess; grandfather, Isaac White; stepfather, Norris Williams; sisters, Shenell Williams-Davis, Shadae Purchess, Marsha Lewin; brothers,

Gahyan Purchess, Joseph Purchess, Bobby Purchess, Colin Williams; cousins, Nadia Ebanks,

Whyte, Leslie Whyte, O’Ryan Smykle, Dwayne Smykle, Sophia Lewin, Lakeisha Cole, Damian

Palmer, Raven Martin; aunts, Jean Smykle, Charmaine Tait, Dahlia Purchess, Elaine Whyte;

uncles, Leslie Whyte, Sean Murray, Richard Jackson ; niece, Zaleykay Purchess; nephews,

“ You sure are missed my friend. Still find it hard to believe you're gone.

I still want to call you and stop by and harass you at work.

Thank you for all the memories.

“ I'm still in disbelief that you're no longer here. You was always here for me and making sure that Charleigh and I was taking care. You showed what a true meaning of love and relationships was. I'll forever miss you! P.S. Don't be weird ❤️
