“ I met Kevin while riding to work at NIH on Metro Access. We soon became good friends. Since I always carried a bag of candy with me to give to the passengers and drivers on Metro Access, Kevin gave me the nickname the "Candy Lady". Kevin, you will truly be missed. Riding on Metro Access will never be the same again without you. You made our trips to work and home absolutely wonderful with all of the laughter that you brought to us, crazy stories and calling the male drivers "Man Man" when you wanted them to stop somewhere on the way home to get something to eat. I will miss our conversations on the Van about anything and everything, but always having everyone laugh and having the best ride home ever.... May you now rest in peace, and may GOD bless and comfort your family and friends during this difficult time. You were truly "one of a kind", and will forever have a special place in my heart. I miss you already. Linda Hamilton (The Candy Lady on Metro Access and at NIH).

“ WHAT AN AWESOME GUY!!!! The world now seem so empty, so quiet and so void of laughter without you!!! Even though we did not speak everyday, I knew I had a true friend in you. I will treasure the times we spent together and in that way a part of you will live in my heart forever and ever. Your smile and your laughter made the world light-up and brought joy to everyone. You were indeed a gift to this world.

“ I met Kevin shortly after he started at NIH and we soon became good friends. We carpooled together for @2 years and we had some of the craziest conversations while in the car. We always had to stop for breakfast in the morning and dinner in the evenings. I will forever cherish the times we spent together and his friendship. Rest in peace my friend. Frances
