“ During this very difficult time, God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. For instance, at John 11: 25, 26 Jesus said: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all. Do you believe this?” Jesus said this just before resurrecting his friend Lazarus. If Jesus could resurrect Lazarus, he can resurrect your loved one too! Please take comfort in these words and example from the Bible.

I only had the pleasure of meeting him briefly at a family event. He had a nice smile and seemed a happy person. I am very sad for the Gulelat Family. They have been with him through his illness and are devastated by his loss. He was a brother in every sense of the word to them. The care and kindness they showed him and the way they are honoring him now comes from a place of deep love and affection and could,only mean he was a wonderful person and truely loved.
