“ My deepest condolences to the family. Elder Blaino was a beautiful man that loved what he did and loved God as well as others it showed in his work. I love him with the love of Jesus and my life is richer because the Lord blessed me to know him for such a short while loved studying the bible with him. May the Lord console you and continue to bless you in the name of Jesus!!!

“ I am deeply sadden about the loss that the Blaino family is experiencing. I am praying for all of you during this time and even more so after Mr. Blaino is laid to rest and you all are faced with the challenge of moving ahead with wonderful memories and nuggets of wisdom he has left with you. May the peace of God be fresh and undeniably present with each passing day.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mr.Blaine more than 20 years ago when I taught his children at Seabrook Elementary School. Mr.Blaino was a gentleman and a loving and concerned father.My co-workers and I always talked about how distinguishing he was.He would always be so impeccably dressed and was so intelligent. Mrs.Blaino,Dora and family your husband and Dad has left all of you a beautiful legacy.God has added another Angel to his Kingdom.
