“ To the Family of Ms. Vernie Beeks,
You and your family have our deepest sympathy, and we want you to know how sorry We are for your loss. We know it will take a lot of time to learn to live without Vernie, and it won't be easy. But she would want everyone to take the very best care of themselves and enjoy the fullest lives that they can. As soon as you are able, try to honor her memory by the way you treat yourselves and others in your lives. Let her legacy help you touch other lives in your own positive ways. Each time you revisit the memories you all made together, let the love you all shared give you courage and help you to move on.

Family, you will get through this. And you will grow stronger with each effort you make. Right now when your loss is so fresh, it may be difficult for you to imagine that this pain will ever go away. But in time, the blessings of God's unfailing grace will soften the hurt that you are feeling and bring your hearts the peace, comfort and hope that they need to heal.

Until then, please remember there's a circle of friends surrounding you who are embracing you family, and lifting everyone up in prayer. If there is anything I can do to help, I'm just a phone call away.

With Deepest Sympathy,

Brandon Johnson (Cousin of the late Kimberly Williams) and Trabian Williams (Son of the late Kimberly Williams)
Upper Marlboro, MD.
