

Mr. Leroy Hall Sr.

February 12, 1945 - April 14, 2025

Leroy Raymond Hall, Sr. peacefully entered eternal rest on Monday, April 14, 2025, at Washington Hospital Center in Washington, D.C. He was born in Washington, D.C. to the late Mary and Robert Hall on February 12, 1945.

Leroy, Sr. was educated in the District of Columbia Public Schools. He was a good student and had lots of friends. When he was in school, he was good at hand dancing.

Leroy was not the eldest out of the 11 children, but he behaved like he was.

He really cared about his siblings and wanted them to stay on the right path. He helped his mother and father with his three younger siblings.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Peggy Hall. His children included Brianna, Kayla,

Joyce, Altimeese, Hazel, Vonja, Eugene, Leroy "Duke", Eric, William, Leroy "Lee", and the late

Alphonso. He loved and cherished his family.

Leroy, Sr. worked several jobs and retired from the Architect of the Capitol. He did not play with his money and managed his money responsibly. He was a quiet individual and had excellent boxing skills which made him well-known in the neighborhood as Leroy "Iron Pipe" Hall. He was a generous man, and all his family could come to him for anything. Leroy loved his family unconditionally and did not let anyone mess with them.

Leroy, Sr. was a Washington Commanders Football fan. He also enjoyed dancing, listening to music and watching professional wrestling.

Leroy, Sr. was a man of faith. He had experienced some life altering miracles by God. He was deathly sick with pneumonia and was pronounced dead by the doctors before being miraculously healed by God. On another occasion, he was pronounced dead and when his body arrived at the morgue, God brought him back to life. Leroy, Sr. held on to his faith, thanked God, and knew nothing is impossible with God. He was blessed to live many more years and able to see his family tree grow.

He was preceded in death by his wife and late son, Alphonso Frazier (Jacqueline). Cherishing his memory are his loving daughters, Vonja Hall, Hazel Hall, Altimeese Hall, Joyce Hall, Brianna Cousar, Kayla Cousar, Tracy Ham, sons, Leroy Hall, Jr.

"Lee", William Edwards (Carla), Leroy Hall, Jr. "Duke" (LaTisha), Eugene Hall, Eric Cousar, Darrell

grandchildren, 36 great grandchildren, and a host of loved ones including nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Leroy, Sr. 's transition has created a hole in our hearts, that only heaven can heal. We thank God for giving us the extra time with Leroy, Sr. and preparing the family to accept God's will in our lives.
