“ I was shocked beyond words that my dear friend Lil (from 1992) had died without me knowing. I tried to reach on March 10 (her birthday) without luck; I thought she had traveled as I know she always did. I tried again this past mother’s day but got worried that her phone lines were disconnected so I drove to her house early Monday morning to find it very empty. My heart sank so I started walking around her neighborhood hoping to talk to someone who could tell me where to find her. Luckily, I ran into her next door neighbor who gave me the sad news. Few weeks just before the date she died I surprised her with a drop-by visit and we spent hours talking about her new found religion, her late brother “uncle Charlie” and even her son. I left her house so late that she called to make sure I got home safe, I never knew she was sick to the point of death and that it would be the last time I will see her on this earth. Perhaps I should have known something was wrong when I did not get a Christmas card from her, something that happened every year without fail or a call to know if I had tickets to Redskins game
I cannot begin to describe how empty and heart-broken I am. She was not just a co-worker but a sister and “Aunt Lil” to my kids. May her gentle soul rest in peace.

“ Lillian Mae Stringfellow AKA Lillie Mae was my best friend for well over 30 years. I wasn't contacted when she died. I am so hurt that I wasn't able to be there for my friend in her final departure. I feel robbed. Lil had lots of friends. Long time friends that will be so overwhelmed IF and when they find out that she passed. We called hospitals and the coroner's office. It was so hard to ask if my BEST FRIEND had passed. Thank Goodness the young man at Johnson and Jenkins Funersl home was able to inform me that my dear friend had departed. This was 11/14/16. I am heartbroken. My family was her family. WE WOULD HAVE BEEN THERE TO SAY FAREWELL MY DEAR FRIEND...WE DIDN'T KNOW. Patricia Misty Chinn (Fog)
