“ Linda started the retirees' luncheon at Golden Corral every third Thursday and several Child Support retirees participated as I did a few times. After missing a couple of months herself, Linda said to me on February 25th leaving Mrs. Floyd's 90th birthday celebration that she and I both needed to make the next luncheon which ironically was scheduled for March 16th. She celebrated that luncheon at Home with the Lord. I will truly miss my friend. God Bless.
