“ Lew our hearts are truly broken. We have laugh together since 2010. Your since of human was amazing. Your style and personality stood out among the best. The thing that we will always remember was your love for our Father, God. A true man after the heart of God. You did everything to make sure he was in line with God will. I remember him Lew saying trust God for all things. He reminded us to pray first before starting our day. He will be sadly miss. He love for us was beautiful and we loved him with all our heart. Lew so so unique in so many ways. A true father to his sons and daughter. He loved his grand children. His family was so lucky to have a kind and tender man. We have 100's of picture he shared when traveling around the world. We will hold on to the pictures and so many wonderful memories. Love Lew to his departure. God has gained a soldier in deed. God continue to bless and strengthen his two sons and daughter. If there was every a time they need to hear from heaven. This is the day. Love love and rest in heaven. Our dear special friend.

“ I have been praying and asking God to heal you....but I know God is in control. You will forever be a special angel Mr. Bachus. Meeting you at APG in 1991, your encouragement kept me going and growing as a young officer. Rest in his arms my friend, my brother in arms, my guardian angel... You will be missed...but..you are now free! God has your family covered. Love you partner! Sincerely LTC (R) Deborah Brown Harlem Blues

“ My condolences to Jason, Javon, and the entire Bachus Family from Vince Bright, Jr.

Lew was not only my team lead when working for CECOM Materiel Release Team... He was a mentor, disciplinarian (hated whenever I came in late), mechanic (helping me with my car), but above all Lew became a father figure to me. A man that I could call anytime of day or night no matter what it was about.

Besides his undeniable love and admiration for the Lord... Lew's passion was teaching! We had to give Materiel Release classes and every time he got in front of the class you could tell he was in his zone. Smiling and engaging with the students the entire time!

If I only take one thing from the many lesson that Sweet Lew taught me, it would be to continue to live life. Whenever I had an issue about anything he would always end the conversation with, "Just Keep Living, Jr."

Lew I love you and I miss you!

“ Lew was a great friend, co-worker, teammate, and person who always had a kind and reassuring word for everyone. He always sought the good in people and was proactive in bring out the best. Most of all, he loved to teach and impart information and knowledge whether that was the expertise he gained on the job or more so, biblical knowledge.

Our deepest and profound condolences to his family and friends. He will be greatly missed by all!

“ The Forte family sends our love and deepest condolences during your time of sorrow. Gloria you and Lou was our go to friends and Lou will always remain in our thoughts. God places people in your lives for a season. The apostolic doctrine was one, Lou loved God and God's people. Gloria and family may God continue to shine his light on you and your children in the name of Jesus. Remember, Lord don't let me fail, when my way grow dark stand right by side, and when my way grow near lord help me to see, something down in side, that thou has done for me. Oh Lord as Lou would sing and you would assist I want to be your bride. May God Continue to shine his light on you. We Love you.

“ The Isaac Family send their deepest condolences to the Bachus Family. A friend of the family since 1991 when we met during the Gulf War. He was a friend, brother in arms, co-worker, Fellow Warrant Officer, but most of all a person that would do his best to help others. He came into our lives, leaving his footprints on our hearts like the laughter, the loud hand claps, the jokes and yes there was serious side too where he talked of his Faith, his family and his desire/ goal to become a teacher. Rest in Peace Lew you are now with God.

“ *To the family of a friend, prophet, and elder of the gospel. Our beloved friend Lou planted great wisdom in our lives from the spiritually and government points of views. He would make sure that he pointed you to the word of God instead of opinion and I'm so grateful for his wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of the gospel that helped me multiple times as a pastor and friend of the gospel. He continued to influence us that your dress attire should always be outstanding and well presentable. He truly will be missed in the APG area but we can say that his promotion to heaven is the best thing that could ever happened to a saint of the Lord. “ Measure of Faith Church sends our condolences to the Bachus family. We pray that God will comfort you during these trying times. Our fondest memory of Elder Bachus was when he attended Bishop Moncrieffe's consecration service in Stamford, Connecticut. His presence was a light to all who attended. My first encounter with "Sweet Lew" was when he was assigned as my team leader CECOM Reset Division. Lew was the consummate teacher always expanding the minds of those around him. I remember once he gave me a lecture about the difference between a garden hose and a fire hose, his intent was to tell me to slow down and focus. I will be forever grateful to Lew and his lesson. It was always a pleasure to discuss scripture with him and the hot button issues of the day. Lew will be missed and we are forever enhanced by is presence. Sleep Well my brother

“ Deepest sympathies to the Bachus Family. My fondest memory of Lew is working with him at CECOM in LEO supporting RESET efforts. Almost every morning, Lew would sing a cadence out loud and purposely annoy some of us (LOL). We eventually just got used to it and accepted that it was his way of motivating others in the office. His laugh and smile was infectious. I never saw him angry and he was always willing to help others by sharing his abundance of knowledge. He will be greatly missed on the CECOM campus. May God continue to embrace his loved ones during this most difficult time.

“ To the Bachus Family - Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you as you move through this time of grieving. I want you to know that I can't thank God enough for putting Lew in my life. His visits to my desk or a phone call that pretty much said, Joseph come see me, I knew it was about SharePoint help and we would laugh through it all. He was a true professional and a good man. He was good to me and I know I am a better person today for knowing him. He touched my life. I know this because when I heard the news I felt my mind and heart go numb. I know you will miss him, we all will. Rejoice in the memories and love a very good man. Rest in Peace Lew you are now with God, forever.....

“ To the Bachus Family no words can express the loss of Lew, he was a great co-worker, mentor, friend, Preacher, Joker, Lew made our lives joyful in the CECOM G3 office. He called me "Dar", "Oh Lord here comes trouble", his laughter would radiate throughout the office, but when it came down to work Lew was a true professional. I will miss you my friend. May God comfort and wrap his arms around your family and friends as we remember the wonderful Man that you are. I know that you are now in God's hands, hold on until we meet again.

Dear Bachus Family:

I pray that God will continue to cover you during this time of sadness. I am just learning of the loss. Lew and I crossed paths in 2005 in Kuwait. We never saw each other again, but made sure that we reached out a few times each year to share blessings, a laugh and most importantly God's Word! My heart is filled with joy knowing that he is at peace now, but also sadden that the voice has disappeared. Be Well Family! Hold onto God's Unchanging Hands!!

Much Love
