“ Our beautifully shared memories of Uncle Lory have to deal with one his his passions, that we truly loved as well. Oscar III, was able to play golf on a number of occasions with Uncle Lory and his Father, (Lory’s older brother, Oscar Jr.) at the same Ft. Jackson, SC golf course where they caddied and ran the snack bar as teens. Uncle would allow me to wager on a hole, knowing full well his fame was so good I’d never collect on a bet. Even though he always win, he’d never take our money. Many years later, Sheryl and I were able to break him out if the Residence he was in to take him to the Andrews AFB course. He truly enjoyed being g on the veranda watching the other players and reminiscing about his many exploits on that same course. Hit them well Uncle, I know you and Dad are enjoying a blessed Reunion with our other Family members who’ve preceded you.
