“ These are the thoughts that keep me awake at night. I have had a lot of death in my life, in my family, parents, siblings, friends, some young and some older. It is always different and reactions are always different. There are no words that are right for these times. There is nothing that makes it better. When one sister was left with a 2 year old and a 4 year old at the age of 24 to raise on her own I often wondered how she got out of bed in the morning. Somehow, she did. When another sister buried her only son before he was 30 I wondered how she got out of bed in the morning. Somehow, she did. These are the thoughts that keep me awake at night.

“ Lester, You & your family have our deepest sympathy for the Loss of your Dear Mother. Although there's no love like Moms, just remember that Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. Forever remember the Love & Nurturing your Mom gave and the tight bond that the two of you shared. Your Mother's legacy will forever live within you.

“ I am deeply sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Soon your sorrow will be turned into joy, when Jesus raises all those who are now asleep in death; restoring them back to life, with the hope of eternal life on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that wonderful blessing unfolds, may GOD continue to comfort you, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ To the family of Mrs. Louise:
I am sorry about the passing of Mrs. Louise. May the memories of her help to ease your pain of sorrow.
The Bible speaks of a time when death will be destroyed & death is so bad that at 1 Corinthians 15:26 it is liken to an enemy.
But take comfort in knowing that Mrs. Louise is not suffering but is asleep in death waiting to hear Jesus voice. He (Jesus) promised a future resurrection at John 5:28 & 29.
I hope & pray that these words can bring you a measure of comfort until the fulfillment of them.
Love,

“ My heart goes out to the Family of a Wonderful, funny, loving woman. being in her presence was like experiencing the joy of the Lord in human form. I will miss her beautiful spirit, gigantic heart, and the most gorgeous smile God has ever shaped.
To the family members, I say thank God for blessing you with such a wonderful mother, sister, grandma, aunt, cousin, and second mom to me and anyone that wasn't related by blood. I will forever cherish the many hours laughing and skipping down memory lane with you all.
God bless, keep, and wrap you up in His loving arms Ricky
