“ Mother, Thank you for the joy and smiles and vibrancy you brought to our family for all these years. We had so many laughs and, yes, many tears together. You were there for so many holiday dinners and life events, Kel's wedding, Sean's birth, My Mom's death, and yor dear Mother Henrietta's as well. I can't think of anyone whom I would rather have shared my life with than you, Mother. Love always, Boobie

“ Mother, You allowed Jer and myself into your life (and Shaun's!) some 27 years ago. Our days together were full of fun, laughter, family, holiday dinners, Sunday visits, and that infectious laugh of yours. Yes, we shared some heartaches too--David, Mother Henrietta, my Bo, and more. But you made our lives richer, and brighter, with big doses of eternal optimism. I will miss the Mother Madaline with the bright clothes, pumps to match, just the right jewelry, and a smile as big and light as the new sun. You brightened up every room you entered. With all our love, Jerry and Boobie and Family

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your love one. Soon we can all look forward to the day when death is no longer apart of our lives, because Jehovah God has promised to put an end to it forever(Isaiah 25:8) and those who are sleeping in death will be raised from the graves and restored back to life, with the prospect of eternal life(John 5:28,29) and the earth will be a renewed paradise, the way God intended.-Luke 23:43; II Peter 3:13.
