“ I’m sadden by the fact that we never met, but we share something very important to you and to me. The LOVE we have for our daughter (although you birth her) May God give your REST eternal peace and comfort. And your family grieving be of understanding that your work here was done and it was time for you to go home and REST IN GODS ARMS.

“ To Margaret's family and friends- my prayers are with you as we all learn to live without her. I worked with Margaret many years and she truly was a blessing both for her work ethic and her empathy that she readily shared with anyone who needed it. Her ability to help NIH managers and employees resolve issues and keep them moving forward will never be forgotten. I am so glad she also did what made her happy and that you all know the joy you brought her. From Sharrell Butler

“ Sis Farrell sent a card to me last year when she heard that I lost my husband. I had never met her; yet, her compassion, during my loss, towards another sister in Christ is what will always hold her memory in my mind. She was moved with compassion. May God's compassion follow her, and, may she sleep in perfect peace.
