

Mark Aubry Thorne

March 28, 1965 - December 24, 2015

Mark Aubrey Thorne was born on March 28, 1965 to Clifford and Cecilia Thorne in Diamond East Bank Demerara, Guyana. He was the second child and oldest son. Mark was a quiet natured young man who loved Michael Jackson and always carried his sequenced glove in his pocket.

Before migrating to the United States in 1983, Mark attended the David Rose

School in Georgetown Guyana. He was a favorite among his neighbors, peers and teachers. In the United States, Mark attended the Mamie D Lee school where he graduated. Mark went on to work at the Bureau of Engraving and printing with the Smithsonian Museum of natural history. Also, Mark attended the Arts and Drama Therapy Institute in Washington DC. Recently, he performed at the Lincoln Theater to Michael Jackson's Billie Jean song.

Mark departed this life to go and be with his lord and savior Jesus Christ on December 24, 2015. He leaves behind his mother and father, Cecilia and Clifford Thorne, his siblings, Cecile, Wayne, Kurt, Ian and Vince. His nineteen nieces and nephews, sixteen great nieces and nephews, cousins (Brian, Keiron, Curtis & Nigel, Samantha, Jenny, Guy, Wynette, Judith, and many others), sisters in law, aunts (Margo, Lilith, Lynette, Evelyn, Celestine, Brenda, Marcelle, Jackie, Phillis, Joan, Gwyneth, Lisa and other. Uncles (Percy, Gerald, Andrew, William, Robert, Frank, Joseph, Albert and others).

The Boyce, Thorne, Barrow, Morrison, Cammeron, Roach, Forde, Brown, Robertson, Alridge, Barkers, Nichols, Luke, Jeffers, Granville, Layne, Thompson, Genning, his program family, many loving friends and neighbors.

He will be dearly missed, farewell our beloved Mark, we will meet again on the other side.

Mark loved people and made friends wherever he went. In fact, the world was his friends. And he was loved and respected by any and all who came in contact with him. Rest in peace:

Magnificent Amazing Respectful Kind

We love you and will greatly miss you.
