

Mary Snowden

October 17, 1937 - February 28, 2018

Mary Elizabeth Snowden was born the daughter of the late Frank Sr. and Adeline Robinson on October 17, 1937 in Washington, DC. Mary had two brothers, Frank Jr. and Herbert, both deceased.

Mary attended DC public schools and graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School and later attended Federal City College, where she earned her licensed practical nurse degree. While in college, she worked at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and then retired after a 31-year career with the District of Columbia Department of Corrections, where she worked at various facilities, to include the Woman's Bureau, DC Jail, Lorton Reformatory and Occoquan Security Facility.

After retirement, Mary enjoyed being around people, especially her grand kids, traveling and the casino life. Mary would often, against many objections, leave her home late at night for a casino outing in Delaware. She loved to travel and cruise the world, with destinations in Africa, the Caribbean and many other exotic places. Mary was also known to have the last word and when she finished educating you, she would do anything for you. She loved her Cameron Grove community and would often visit the Resort Center to play Pokeno and socialize with her neighbors.

She accepted Christ early in life and joined the First Baptist Church of Glenarden, where she was a faithful member of the Agape and Seniors on the Go ministries until she became ill.

Mary was proceeded in death by her daughter, Pandora Snowden Brown. She leaves to cherish her memory her son Bernard T. Snowden, Jr. LaVonne devoted daughter-in-law, two nieces, Elvera Robinson and Candice Robinson, a nephew, Herbert H. Robinson, Jr., six grandchildren, Bernard T. Snowden III, Delila Rosenboro, Alexander Snowden, Corey Snowden, Nyla Snowden and Adam Brown, and three great grandchildren Jailyn Snowden, Bria Snowden and Caden Snowden. She will also be mourned by a host of family and friends.
