“You have my deepest sympathy for the passing of Miss Mary; I am sure she will be truly missed by all her family and friends. I pray the family will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the earthly resurrection of all those who are now sleeping in death(Acts 24:15)when he with the power of Jehovah God's holy spirit, will call(Job 14:14,15)those from the graves; restoring them back to life with the prospect of eternal life on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Just imagine your joy on seeing and being reunited with your dear love one again, what a blessed time that will be.-John 11:11-14; Acts 9:36-43. Please read these scriptures in your Bible, for added peace and comfort.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Dear Wilhelminia:

I was truly saddened to read about the loss of your Mother on the wire yesterday. It's always tough to hear such news about people you hold in high regard. Because so many of us know the loss of a loved one creates such a physical and emotional load to bare, people who care are compelled to want to help you endure.

So as those who care try to "do what we can," quite often the acts of kindness, and the sheer number of words of support spoken and written too vast to take in because your mind is simply fixated on the emotions associated with the loss. But over time, eventually you will find your way back to them, in memory and reading, and benefit from knowing simply that people cared.

Although you and your family have to endure this loss for eternity, I pray that you find comfort and strength in your memories of the happiest times with your mother; and in knowing that God will take care of her in Heaven and those she left behind to fulfill her legacy. So that her good works and deeds live on through you and the rest of her family. Moments will come where you feel like you cannot go on any further but remember God will take care of you and that you have a number of friends surrounding you with earthly love as well.

“ Dear Mina, It saddens my heart to know of the loss of your beloved mother. I will not be there physically, but my heart, mind and soul are with you and your family as I pray God's blessings upon you during your time of grief. Just remember that each day is a gift from God. He has given us mornings, brightness, and sun, laughter to share and work to be done. He has given us rainbows, flowers, and songs, and the hands of our dear ones to help us along. He has given us prayer with its wonderful power to lighten our hearts in this your deepest and darkest hour. But he always gives us blessings to brighten our way. God is with you at the dawn of each new day. Trust in Him as he grants you peace and blessings, for we know your dear loved one is peacefully resting. May God continue to be the center of your JOY! With deepest sympathy.

Love and Blessings, Margaret

“ To the family of Ms. Mary Wedge: On behalf of the family of the late Wilton (James) Wallace, I would like to offer our sincere condolences. Losing a loved one is never easy. I will not say that I know what you are feeling because we all mourn differently. We can't mourn for you but we can mourn with you. Ms. Mary was a really sweet person and she will be missed. Not only by family but by all those that knew her. Hold on to GOD's unchanging hand and may the Peace of the Lord be with you. GOD Bless.
