“ You were my BFF from Howard! I am just finding out and I am truly heart broken. You were one of the smartest people that I knew. Rest in paradise!

“ Dear Maurice, your sudden death shakes my faith in everything. Yes in everything - it was only last month you shared with me your plans to set up a charity at home with the aim of providing succour to the disadvantaged. I am unable to gather myself to write at this moment, except to say that you will remain forever in our thoughts. The Awe Family of Sagamu has lost a very dear friend, a brother and a gem. Our prayers go to Yola and Arit (your wife & daughter), all your relations and the extended family. Those we love do not go away, they forever remain in our memory.

Dear Maurice, I always think about you and now at Xmas it is even more painful that you suddenly passed away exactly two months ago. Life is full of miseries, pains, laughters and too many uncertainties that continue to confound us all. I look back and wish I could turn back the hands of the clock. Your friendship is incomparable - always true, faithful and sincere - a kind word about every person in the room. I will miss you greatly because there is this void that will not be filled.

With fond memories,

“ Maurice was a longtime family friend. He was like family to me. We would always talk on the phone or sometimes all go out to dinner. Whenever it was it was always full of laughs and goodtimes. Maurice had a great sense of humor. I will miss him. Rest well dear brother.
