Rest in peace mike i will miss you so much you was such a special friend and brother i could talked to you about everything I'll miss those days you're truly in my heart forever like we always use to say don't let no one or nothing steal our joy and or rent space in our heads well today the joy is sadness because you left us to soon and there's a lot of space rented in our heads today because we will never see you again your encouraging words your kindness and your smiles much love your friend for life ebony
