Muriel Dick - A Life Well Lived (1926 - 2024)

Muriel Dick, a beloved Mother, Grandmother, and Great-Grandmother passed away peacefully on April 30th, 2024, at the age of 98. Born in Leguan, Guyana in 1926, Muriel cherished her early years spent in her island community with her late mother Eldica Thompson. She attended St. Peter's Anglican School and formed lifelong memories in Leguan. After completing her formal education, Muriel moved to Georgetown to pursue a career as a seamstress. It is at this time she met her late husband, Byron Canterbury Dick.

In 1971, Muriel embarked on a new chapter, immigrating to the United States. She embraced her new life and continued her education at the University of the District of Columbia (UDC) where she studied nursing.

After finishing her nursing studies, Muriel began her 22-year career at George Washington University Hospital. Upon retiring, she continued to give back to the community by volunteering with the Visiting Nurse Association for many years.

Muriel was more than just a caregiver; she was the glue that kept the family together. Her home was a haven; everyone looked forward to gathering around her table, especially during the holidays. Muriel was an excellent cook, and her Thanksgiving dinners were legendary amongst the family. Beyond mealtimes, her warmth and love always created a welcoming space for loved ones.

Muriel also enjoyed sewing and unwinding with her favorite music. She had a surprisingly eclectic taste, ranging from the smooth sounds of the Isley Brothers, Aaron Neville, and Lionel Richie to the electrifying energy of Prince and James Brown and the infectious rhythms of cultural icons like The Mighty Sparrow and Calypso Rose.

In the final stretch of her journey, surrounded by the love of her family, Muriel peacefully concluded her earthy voyage. Though her presence may be absent, her memory remains etched in the hearts of those she touched. With profound sadness, we bid farewell to a beloved mother. Her life is a testament to beauty and depth, cherished beyond measure.
