To friends and other relatives.....

The Family and Johnson & Jenkins Funeral Home, Inc. appreciate those who will be in attendance virtually for the safety of your health or the consideration of others if you exhibit any of the following:

- Have cared or are caring for someone who has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or has symptoms
- Have been diagnosed with COVID-19
- Have any of the following symptoms, fever, cough, runny nose, or any of the other symptoms updated on the CDC website
- Have traveled inside and/or outside of the United States recently.
- If you are considered at high risk

If you have any problems with the link please contact Mrs. J. Reid @ 202-681-7121

The Family sincerely appreciates your presence during this time of bereavement. Your kind words, prayers, and gifts are felt. Please leave a comment in the comment section to let the family know of your virtual presence.

Disclaimer:

While every effort will be made to ensure the live-stream takes place seamlessly, platform-related interferences can occur that are outside of our control. Though it has been a rare occurrence in our personal experience, it is not unheard of and we take precautions accordingly. In the unfortunate event that the live-stream was to disconnect, a new live-stream will be created immediately to continue coverage of the remainder of the service and a link to the new live-stream will be provided in the comments and description section of the initial live-stream that was disrupted.

Johnson & Jenkins observes CDC regulations for COVID-19 pandemic.

“ My prayers go out to Family and friends of Nellie Clark. Ms Clark is cousin to my mother Anna White Dixon. I never met Ms Nellie, but mom stayed in touch with her and talk about her very often. So she is in my memories with mom. I know that is a happy reunion in Heaven. Peace to all of you.

“ Aunt Nellie was a dear soul. We loved visiting her, laughing and just loving being part of the family. She was the Matriarch of her family for many years and her knowledge and stories of her family was inspirational. You are loved and will be missed.
