“ My name is Ms Jones..we worked together in Harlem Hospital on the 14th floor. The evening that I met him, he had been sent, against his will from, the 13 floor to the 14th floor to work...and he was heated. Olu was angry...I gently interacted with him in the nurses station...he began to calm down...I hit him with my magnificent smile...and he melted like butter..lol...we became good friends after that..and he would always stop on the 14th floor to visit the staff...he was a great guy to us...I always looked forward to seeing him...my
