“ My condolence to Parney Jr and Donna. Parney you have been a constant presence in my family lives since the 50's. There were years of gap but later got together when you and Micheal met up again in the 60's. It was you and Micheal and me and Wendell. Although I left the area in 1978 you remain a fixture in our family/home. RIP our dear freind/brother.

“ To my dear friend Parney, it has been my pleasure knowing the wonderful person you are. Your big bright smile is all I can think about and your funny laugh. You truly will be missed but I will never forget you.

To PJ, My condolences go out to you. You truly are your dad's son and he loved you to pieces! I have you in my prayers and heavy on my heart that God will definitely take care of you and see you through it all.

Love Always Sabrina and Jhante' (Butter)
