“ Dear Braxton Family: I read about the loss of Mrs.Braxton in the obituary today and I wanted to extend my sympathy. As humans we want to live and we want to enjoy life with those we love, it is only natural that we yearn to see our dead loved ones again, so it's comforting to know that the Bible teaches that most people who have died will be resurrected. The Bible promises this at John 5:28,29 which in part reads:"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life,". Your family will be in my prayers, my sincere condolences.

“ May God continue to comfort all who loved Ms. Braxton. We can all look forward to the time when death will be no more and instead of tears of sorrow there will be tears of joy. I know she will be missed by many. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy.

“ You were such a beautiful soul and always so giving and considerate towards our family. You were more than a neighbor you were our friend and we will miss you dearly. When your heart has beaten for the last time, there's only one thing that God will be looking for at the gates of eternity: Jesus, His Son, with His arm around you saying, "This one's with Me."
