Dearest Rockie. God sent you as an Angel to take care of my dad Papi (Dave Willetts) for 5 years. He left us for heaven on November 20, 2015 and now you have joined him just 5 years later. We couldn't have taken such good care of him without you. All the good food you cooked like curry chicken and fried plantains for Pascal. You became my sister and your kids part of our extended family. We miss you so much. You were a wonderful nurse and excellent mother, and a super person that the world will miss. We prayed you would be with us in our old age, but now we must wait until we all see Jesus.

“ To my sweet Auntie Racquel, oh how hard this journey is going to be without you I love and miss you dearly your one of the many people who I couldn't imagine life without. I have so many memories with you, once I got my car that was the first place I made my way to your house 😭, living with you for the period of time that I did, during my first years in college was fun, I washed your hair and you said “Ché don't drown me” I said “I'm not I know what I'm doing” and you still stuck your hand in your head to get the parts that you thought I missed 😭, when I was becoming a pastry chef you supported me from the start you said “Ché make me some cupcakes fi ty birthday please? How much you gon charge mi?”, the time I came home (to your house) crying because I was gonna fail my class without having the book and I didn't want to tell my mom you said “Ché don't wait so long to ask if mommy don't have It you can always ask me or Sanya and we'll figure out something to get you what you need.” , times when you would call us over didn't have to be a celebration and you would put something on the grill or cook, times when you would take me everywhere with you even if it's just to Costco, any clothes or shoes you had that didn't fit you or didn't want you gave them to me to see if I would like, or the time when we were getting ready for a cookout and you saw me putting on makeup you said “Ché put some powder pon mi face” 😭, I could go on and on. The memories I have and can remember I'll never let them pass me by. Say hi to my grandma for me ❤️ I'll miss you both forever always my sweet angels 🦋🌻❤️🌟~ Love Liché 🤗

“ My sweet loving cousin Racquel, I remember when I found out that I had cousins that came up here from Jamaica, I was so anxious to meet everyone. I met you and from then we were inseparable, we were always going out and having fun. You moved in with mommy and me after your car accident, and we grew closer. After mommy passed you were my constant rock always making sure I was good, you never left me out of anything. Any holiday you made sure wherever you were going I could come, we talked and cried about so much. I remember a couple times when I called and told you I might be short on my rent you would always say if yuh nuh get it in time pack up di pickney dem an come live wid mi 🥺. You would always call me early in the morning at work, to the point where I told tell you gonna get me fired one day because mi not even start work yet an mi deh pon di phone, mi nuh know how yuh love phone suh much, but I sure will miss you calling me throughout the day. You were a wonderful woman, mother, friend, sister daughter and cousin. We have helped each other at our lowest point and build each other up to be stronger than we were before and I admire everything about you and who you turned out to be. I got to celebrate your last birthday with you in Vegas and it was remarkable, we had plans for thanksgiving this year and you couldn't wait to see me turn 40, you said you hoped you'd get strong enough fi buss one wine or two on my birthday just to show you still got it. Oh how I wanted that to happen so badly. There's so many more memories I could go on and on but I'll reminisce on my own and love you forever. I'm so glad you came to the USA so that I could experience that special kind of person you are, and that special kind of love that it felt like you had just for me. I will forever miss you my sweet angel, may you rest peacefully because God's got you now my love... Till we meet again 🥺💔🥺💔🥺💔🥺💔🥺💔

“ My Dearest sister Racquel, from the day I know you, you were my best friend, we have sheared lots of happy memories together we fought together, cause that what sibilings do. We formed a sister clan together and we strapped those boys who used to terrorised you in primary school on a gold post and we would beat them with their own belt and it did take them long to know no to mess with us. We would post our dinner every Sunday and bragged about it, the last dinner you posted was that oxtail dinner and you said that was the winning dinner and we should let you win every Sunday now that you found out you were I'll, and we have never posted another dinner in the group. You are a winner! and will forever be a winner. We made plans to go to Jamaica next year! And now you are gone you have taken a piece of me with you my little sis 🥺🥺🥺🥺 May your soul rest in peace. 🙏🙏🙏🙏❤️

*Racquel was a kind, caring and loving person who was always smiling whenever you see her. Ever since she has been ill and I would call her to see how she was doing she wanted to know how I was doing first, even though she was in constant pain or have had some unfavorable news from her doctors. It's unbelievable that you are gone so soon. Every time I see a picture of you or someone speaks your name, I am jolted back to the reality that you are really not with us anymore, and it saddens me. Racquel, we needed you here with us, especially for your children, but God needed you more. I'm sure he has a job for you which has to be done in Heaven. He didn't want you to suffer anymore. You have gone through a rough road of pain and suffering, but now you are pain-free with the Lord! May your soul rest in perfect peace! Missing you.
