“Faithful “

Missionary Renee’ was the embodiment of this word. She gave herself to the ministry and to both her family and the church family. she was Sold Out for Christ!!

Renee taught me in Sunday School, & in her walk with Jesus.

Everyone had the same theme She never had a mean word or action towards anyone. So Christ Like!

I want to thank you Sis for being genuine, so real. So Like Christ!

Thank You Maurice for sharing your Mom with us. Thank You Jesus for placing Sis Renee’ in my life & for her tarrying with me the first time I walked into THC. 12 yes ago.

Yes, Elder Willie she’s still teaching us all after her death.

Thank You for being a God Fearing Family!!

May God Bless & Keep You Both!!

Blessings Always, sis Gwen

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Evans family. It was a blessings to know her and to share many daily discussions with her mostly about family, football and of course work at the Department of Labor. She provided me with the most pleasant greeting each morning when she arrived at work and a wonderful "Have a nice day" when she departed. Renee was a gift to her colleagues and would listen carefully to all they had to say while in the office. I thank GOD for allowing me the splendid moments shared with a wonderful friend. May her retirement in heaven be restful and at peace.

Lord Bless Renee Abundantly!

“ It is with a grateful heart to God that we all had an opportunity to share time here on this earth with this phenomenal woman. We will miss her sense of humor and infectious smile! Be at Peace with your creator Renee! And to the family know that she graced many at the Department of Labor as I'm sure she did outside the workplace.

*Our prayers are with You!

“ Praying for the Evans Family. Renee was a mentor to me. We would often talk about the Lord as we went through the trials at work, always inspiring each other to “go through”. We exchanged scriptures, prayed, and talked about our families. She was like that to all employees that worked with her. She will truly be missed, but I take comfort in knowing that she’s praising God around His throne right now!
