Richard Henry Parham was born November 24, 1951, in Woodland, Georgia to the late Walter Parham and Nellie King Parham. Of the six children in the family, Richard was preceded in death by one sister, Mary "Mae" Burnett (Alvester), and two brothers, Charles Lee and Johnnie Walter "Bubba." He leaves to mourn him one sister, Rev. Robin Cuff, and one brother, Stanley. Richard was raised in the Friendship Baptist Church in Woodland under the care of Rev. Sparks. He attended John H. Woodall Elementary School and Ruth Carter High School, Talbotton, Georgia.

After graduating, he enlisted in the Army and was honorably discharged on April 1, 1978.

After his service, he worked with his brother Charles at Thomaston Textile Mill for a time and then relocated to Washington, D.C. area. He was employed for many years with the landscaping company, Bob Titus, Inc., until his retirement. He very much enjoyed going to baseball games.

At an early age, he was married to Ladear Brevard. That union ended with no children.

Later, he joined with Constella Louise "Sis" Smith. They lived together for 35 years as a devoted couple. This loving union produced no children, but Richard enjoyed the love and affection of two stepsons, Willie David Young, Jr. (dec) and Tyrone E. Smith.

Richard leaves to cherish his memories his life partner Constella Smith, his stepson Tyrone Smith, his sister Rev. Robin (Walter Cuff) and his brother Stanley (Raynell), as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
