“ Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal. So remember the good and forget the bad. All the good times you and your loved one had. You won' t be quite so sad when you are remembering the good and forgetting the bad. If for all the times you tried and couldn't change, if you could remember the good and all he meant to you, you would thank God for each day you had. So remember the good and forget the bad.

“ Cathy & Family,
Words seem so useless at a time like this, but we had to let you know how much we care, and that our hearts are grieving right along with yours.
It saddened us to hear of Roy's death, and wish we could be there for his homegoing service. We ask God to comfort you and your family, and give all of you strength. He is with you, even in this time of sorrow too deep for words.
We believe in the power of prayer and the comfort of friendship. Right now, we offer you both. Roy is at home with Jesus, resting in His arms in everlasting peace. Our fond memories of him and the good old days will remain in our hearts forever.
In deepest sympathy,

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29
