*My Aunt was a wonderful person who always inspired others to do well. She always provided shelter to those who are in need. I miss her so much but that is my selfish feelings she is now in heaven and she would not leave this earth unless she was sure about the future of our loved ones. My aunt was righteous and I have never seen the righteous forsaken. We celebrate the life of a great woman. God bless her always. My Aunt Kitty my heart hurts from you met being here but your memories and teachings last a life time. Love always.
Your loving nephew
Darrick.*

“ To the family of Ruth Foster

I have very fond memories of Ruth, she & my sister had Parkinson & she help me to understand how that worked. often I would see her at the Ballet School always pleasant & friendly. Ruth was a Golden member of the AARP Shepherd Park Chapter 2667 active for many years. I hope fond memories of her life bring peace to the family & friends.
