

Samuel Gantt

February 3, 1932 - July 14, 2017

NOW AT PEACE

You faced that obstacle
And never looked back
You enjoyed each day
Optimism you never lacked

You took on each day
With a laughter and a smile
Time came upon us
We thought it would be a while

When I saw that rainbow
I knew it was you
You said "Kim I am tired"
Couldn't fathom what you were going through

There is no more pain
They'll be no more sorrow
You've gone home to the Father
Where there are endless tomorrows

There are beautiful memories
Where the joys never cease
Where you are forever rejoicing
You are now at Peace

Love you Daddy
Kim

(Romans 8)

Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is dismantled, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands. For in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked. So while we are in this tent, we groan under our burdens, because we do not wish to be unclothed but clothed, so that our mortality may be swallowed up by life. And God has prepared us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a pledge of what is to come.

Therefore we are always confident, although we know that while we are at home in the body, we are away from the Lord. For we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸We are confident, then, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So we aspire to please Him, whether we are here in this body or away from it.
