

Sharmane P Richardson

March 19, 1985 - March 6, 2018

Sharmane Patricia Richardson-Jewell was born on March 19, 1985 in Washington D.C. She was the daughter of Ferne R. Walker. On Tuesday, March 6, 2018, God's grace was bountifully bestowed on her as soul marched into God's bosom, and she was safely guided to the heavenly home.

Sharmane was educated at Frederick Douglass High School in Upper Marlboro, MD. Sharmane was passionate about helping people, so she pushed a career in the medical field. Through dedication and hardwork, Sharmane became a medical assistant, She served nearly a decade at J. B. Johnson Nursing Center in Washington, D/C.

Sharmane was an active and outgoing person who valued relationships and made friends easily. She loved and enjoyed life, and always found time to assist friends and anyone in need. Sharmane was friend that ALL her friends turned to when they needed to talk and someone to listen. She had a kind and became a beacon of light for all to follow.

Sharmane fought a long and courageous 8 year battle with cancer. She refused to let cancer define in Heaven. Her greatest blessings in life were her family and faith.

Sharmane was a wife, a mother, niece and a friend. Let to cherish her memory of strength, honor, family love and commitment, are her husband, Elton Jewell; mother Ferne Walker; an aunt and an uncle. She also leaves a host of relatives and friends.

To all who were bledded to know her, Sharmane will be remembered as the kindest, most gentle soul.
