“ I’m so very sorry to hear that Teresa has passed. She and my sister, Brenda, were best friends. My sister has been very ill and is still hospitalized. She is not very aware of life happenings right now. She keeps asking for Teresa and felt something had happened to her. I researched her name in the Washington Post and found that she had passed. I know Teresa is no longer suffering and is in the presence the Lord. May her family be strengthened in the days ahead.

“ My sincere condolences to Teresa's family and friends! Though we'd known each other for only a couple years, her transition leaves an indelible mark on my heart! She's free of all the pain and suffering; to God be all the Glory for her life!!!
