“ Just now now seeing that Ms.Toni has passed. She taught me at Joyce Laverne Dance Studio and she was one of my favorite teachers. She had so much personality and always had a story to tell. She truly wanted us to flourish and become the best dancers we could be. I'm gonna miss you lots Ms.Toni, rest peacefully for me. Gone entirely too soon.

“ Ms. Toni was my tap dance teacher at the Joyce Laverne school of dance for four years. My class was a group of parents who waited for our daughters while they took dance lessons. We wanted to learn how to tap. We had no tap experience, rhythm, nervous, and did not know what to expect, nor did we expect to perform in any recitals. But were we wrong. Toni was kind, professional, strict, patient, very talented and respected. She turned our rag tag group into a group of decent tappers who stole the show at each recital. We shocked everyone at how well we tapped and performed! she will be missed! now she joins the other tap greats who have passed on before. Can you imagine what a tap dance challenge that would be? love you, Marcia Venters

“ To the family of Toni Lombre and the Chalmers Family:

I was saddened and devastated the hear of the sudden passing of Toni. All of us in Raleigh were shocked to learn of such sad news. I remember Adrienne and Toni when they were little girls (running and playing) when they came to Raleigh to visit relatives and also at the DC family reunions at Uncle Alex's and Aunt Grace's house. May the Grace of God be with you during this difficult time. And I will be praying for Jolethia, Adrienne, her son and the rest of the immediate and extended families. Just hold on to God's hand and things will eventually get better. God loves you and so do we. You have my deepest condolences.

“ I have so many memories of Toni...

Her teasing me about everything under the sun!

Her feet going a mile a minute with intricate steps, whether she was standing in front of a mirror or sitting in a chair.

Her picking up the bongo drums for the very first time and sounding like an expert, accompanying us while we tapped.

Her choreographing and watching her in the zone with creative juices.

Her being able to recognize if someone is off 1/32 of a beat!

Her flirting with the mirror.

Her confidence, her belief in us all as a family, her tenaciousness, her alive spirit.

Miss her already....
