“ Our sympathies are with you at this time. Take comfort in the wonderful memories and the beauty of the man and father he grew to become. Those memories are what will see you through the hard times. The similarities in the eyes of his children will remind you of his love and legacy. God bless you Millie and Bill

“ My prayers and condolences are with the family. Travis will always have a special place in my heart. I know he is watching over his children and family. He loved his family so much. He always had a smile and words of wisdom. Words don't explain the special relationship we shared and how I feel about him and not being able to be there.
