“ Major Green and King Tut on May 22, 2021. Anacostia park, DC. King Tut was an amazing artist. His freestyling skill was unmatched. And his story telling style of rap let you know he was a real one. A rare breed for sure! Always giving hugs and making sure everything is alright is what I will miss the most. Love u Bro!!! Condolences to the family. His life will be remembered 4ever!!!

“ Tutankhamun ('Tatoo', as my family referred to him) was one of a kind. To my family, he was family- our brother and like a son to my mother. He has always been there for all of us since day 1. He provided great guidance and had words of wisdom for days. He genuinely cared about everyone around him and never spoke ill of anyone. No amount of words can describe my appreciation for him and how much I will miss my brother. I pray his soul rests in peace and his family finds the strength to carry on.

Rest in Paradise Tatoo.

I have worked with Tut for ~ 15 years at Georgetown Internal Medicine and he was the most incredible, humble, unique, person that I have ever worked with @ Georgetown. He was truly one of the "go to" persons that keep our practice flowing. He shared love with everyone that he came across, was universally positive and shared gratitude with all. We discussed his illness at work but only when I encouraged him to open up and share. He was very private and expressed to me that he was not worried about himself but concerns only for his cherished daughter. In short, he was a loving, caring person who opened himself in service to others. I loved Tut and will miss him very much. Rest in Peace,

Dennis Murphy M.D.

“ What a great loss, Tut was an outstanding person. I met Tut in 1999 when I started working at Georgetown Hospital. It was an honor and pleasure to know him. I will forever cherish our conversations. He was always willing to listen and learn. He was quiet but so full of wisdom. He loved his family especially his daughters. May his soul rest in peace. Sending prayers and comfort to his family during this difficult time. T

“ I offer my sincerest condolences to Tut's Family. Tut was a good friend who will be dearly missed. We worked together at Georgetown for 15 years. Tut had the most beautiful, loving heart and deep spirit. I will always cherish my memories of the special moments I was blessed to share with Tut. My life and heart have been forever changed by having Tut in my life. I know he adored his girls and worked so hard to love and support them. Rest In Peace my friend! May the angels surround you and accompany you to paradise.

“ I pray that in this time of loss,
You'll feel God's love much more
And that you'll find your comfort
In the presence of the Lord
I pray God pours upon you,
His sweet amazing grace.

With sincerest condolences,

“ Dear Mahlet,

I am not sure if my words can provide any comfort in your time of grief, but I send up prayers and condolences to you, your precious daughter and all those who loved Tutankhamen. I know you can't see this right now but I promise time will heal your broken heart.

I wish you healing as you prepare to bid a farewell to your loved one. Sending love and hugs your way. Until you meet again, May GOD hold you near.

With sincerest condolences,

Carmen B.

“ Sending healing prayers and comforting hugs. We are so sorry for your loss. But we know our brother is with God as John 11:25-26 said

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die.
