“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29

“ John 14:1-3 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in GOD; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be were I am."
REVELATION 14:13 Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they are blessed indeed, for they will rest from their hard work; for their good deeds follow them!"
Tyra, we will miss you !!!!!

“ A former co-worker informed me of Tyra's passing (I will not be able to attend the funeral services). I worked with Tyra, several years ago, in her department under the same profession as hers. Once I got acquainted with Tyra, I found her to be a nice person. I last saw her, a few years ago, at a store where I was shopping and we had a chance to talk a bit. I will remember her kind ways and the laughs we had when joking with each other.

“ Keisha, We pray that the peace of God and the comfort of the Holy Spirit covers and you and your family at this time, and the weeks ahead. There is no greater peace than that of Jehovah Shalom and no greater comfort than of The Comforter (The Holy Spirit). Much Love to you!

“ So sorry for your loss. I worked at the IRS with Tyra and she will truly be missed. I will keep the family in their thoughts and prayers. May God keep and comfort you during this difficult time.
