Valerie and I we worked at the written house together. We were both concierge's as she was a good friend. I wonder her so much to travel to Kansas City so we go out and have lunch, but I was glad I was able to see her last year of July Just for a couple of hours before returning back to Kansas City Missouri. I will miss my friend. Your work is done at Rittenhouse and so I say rest beyond the river. Your work you're not going in vain and I know you love your daughter and I know she's gonna miss all those conversations she had with you.
