“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for your dear loved one. May the God of all tender mercies and comfort be with you, during your bereavement period. (2Cor 1:3,4) Always remember that God is a refuge and strength for us in all our distresses, especially when we lose a dear loved one.

“ Aaron, Hortense, Tony, Joi, and Ron,
While my heart is heavy with loss, it's also happy with the fact that GOD blessed Vickie and my paths to cross so many years ago. We've had good times, bad times, happy times, sad times and more times than I can begin to think about. Words can't really describe how I feel about losing Vickie. We have been friends for so long. It's so hard to say goodbye to someone so special to me. I'll always remember her for all the good things she has done and all the good she has been to so many people. Just keep remembering that Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal, and she is at peace with Jesus. I sure hope one of you has her pound cake recipe! I'll always be in touch with you all.

“ Joi,
I was sorry to hear about your mother's untimely death. I have lost both my mother and father and I know how hard it is. I still miss them both, especially my mother.

“ There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.
