“ To the family of Mr. Walter Lee Cromer: It is a joy to be a part of your extended family. You was always nice to me, when ever I was in your presence, you treated me and Ann like we were part of your family and we truly loved you for that. All of us will miss you dearly, especially me, because when ever I needed a bag, shirt, whatever, you always knew where to find them for me, laugh. I will always remember our conversations when I would call Shirley in the afternoon, and you and I would just talk and laugh until she came on the line, I'm really going to miss that booming voice, that always had a kind word for others. We loved you, but God loved you best, sleep on my Brother!!!!!!
