“ I just found out about my friend Kurt. This hurts badly. Such a nice man and friend. So so sorry to hear about the loss. To his family my sincerest condolences and prayers to all of you. And for his Children May God bless you all and hold steadfast it will be well. I am at a loss in my life of a good friend and no words can express how I feel. I leave it in prayer in Jesus name. Amen.

“ Kurt,
You will truly be missed. I offer my sincere condolences to your family in the time of their loss. Kurt and I were coworkers. I only knew him six months as I started in Dec. 2016 but it felt like a lifetime. We would chat and laugh all the time. He was a sweet person who greeted you with a smile. While I know he is so missed on Earth, we will see each other again in heaven. Rest in Peace, my friend. To the family, Kurt will always be with you because a happy soul like his is never forgotten. Be blessed, Dr. Nancy C. Lee, friend and co-worker from VA, OIG.

To the Adams family,

What an unexpected, untimely loss, but the consolation is to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Kirk was a mild mannered soft spoken, kind hearted young man. It was a pleasure to be his manager during his stay at the FBI in Washington, DC. Always a smile, always pleasant in demeanor and in conversation. I was stunned, but no surprise to God. I wish for his family at this time, Gods peace, which surpasses all human understanding. Weeping endure but a night, but JOY comes in the morning. God bless and keep you... Bishop Dr. Reginald L. Thompson, Upper Marlboro, Maryland
