

Yusuf Lateef Salahuddin

September 10, 1957 - January 3, 2015

Yusuf Lateef Salahuddin ( aka "Lateef" ) was born Kenneth Morgan Brown, on September 10, 1957, at Metropolitan Hospital in New York, New York. He departed this life on Saturday, January 3, 2015.

Lateef was educated in the District of Columbia and Prince George's County public schools.

After receiving his General Education Degree (GED), he continued his education, receiving a certificate in Paralegal Studies from the University of the District of Columbia.

Lateef was self-employed as a District of Columbia, Street vendor for over 20 years. He often vendor in the 11th & F Street area outside of the Popeye's.

A lover of books and music, he had a particular affinity for computers, which was well known by many. Amazingly, he could work any electronic device placed before him. Lateef was an expert and whiz at identifying computer issues and had a passion for helping people either recover their data or resolve computer issues. He was always the first to have the newest electronics available.

Lateef triumphed adversity, conquered fear, and redefined the meaning of hope. He was determined to Live Life on His Terms, maintaining the utmost dignity at all times. An avid participant of Narcotics Anonymous Fellowship, Lateef further pledged to live a life of renewed meaning and determination.

Lateef focused his energies on spending time with family, friends, and especially his grandchildren, the pulse and heartbeat of his life. In spite of failing health, Lateef always greeted everyone with a smile.

He leaves to cherish in loving memory his seven children - Abdul Lateef, John Amir, Donald Khadir, Khalil Abdel Salahuddin, Kinshasa Blue, Atiba Grey and Rajae Grey; eight grandchildren - Amiir, Xavier, Khalil, Lateef, Lamonte, Aysha, Kyre and Serenity; brothers - Paul and Jason Brown, and Charles Payton; sisters - Jacqueline Parker (Michael), Winona Brown, Crystal Burke and Maritza Burke; and a host of nieces, nephews, and many extended family members and friends.

Visitation will be held on Friday, January 9th, 2015 at Johnson and Jenkins Funeral Home (Chapel) 716 Kennedy Street NW, Washington, DC 20011 at 10am, Service from 11am.
